Itinerary (10 DAYS-8 NIGHTS)

Dec. 28-Tuesday

USA-En Route

Relax in comfort during your overnight Continental Airlines flight to England. We'll change planes in Newark.

Dec 29-Wednesday

London

Before you know it, you have your baggage aboard a waiting motor-coach and you're bound for your four-star London Hotel, the Millennium Gloucester. You'll be treated to impeccable service during your stay, while relishing the great location in Kensington. On the way to the hotel we drive around the West End, Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, and perhaps see the red-jacketed guards of Buckingham Palace. We proceed for a visit to 11th-century Westminster Abbey. After our guide tells tales of kings, queens and poets, the day is free to do as you please. One option: continue your sightseeing in the old City with stops at St. Paul's Cathedral and the Tower of London.

Dec. 30-Thursday

London

Today your adventure could include a stop at Harrod's for the after-Christmas sales or a visit to lesser-visited but fascinating places like Kensington Palace. A number of fascinating walking tours are being planned by your host as well. The choices are endless.

Dec 31-Friday

London

New Year's Eve begins with a delicious breakfast. Perhaps a visit to the Museum of the Moving Image would be a good way to spend this morning. We've scheduled a group THEATRE TICKET for this afternoon and then a delicious New Year's meal at Porter's in Covent Garden. There is time to relax at the hotel before a memorable New Year's welcoming at the foot of Big Ben.

Jan 1-Saturday

London

What a way to start the New Year. We begin it before anyone back home. After breakfast, it's off to see more with perhaps a stroll through Covent Garden, or a walking tour of the haunts of Jack the Ripper in old London.

Jan 2-Sunday

London

Depending on the Stratford final schedule, this would be a great day for our included all day journey to Stratford-Upon-Avon, the birthplace of William Shakespeare, England's most famous dramatist. Enjoy lunch at a charming Stratford restaurant and a tour of the world of William Shakespeare's birthplace and Anne Hathaway's Cottage.

Jan 3- Monday

London

Explore one of London's magnificent museums on your own. The British Museum, the Albert and Victoria Museum, the National Art Gallery and perhaps the World War II command centers near Downing Street. We'll try to schedule a group PANTO THEATRE TICKET for this evening.

Jan 4 -Tuesday

London

Today, there is plenty of time to explore London on your own or adventure out to Windsor Castle for a tour. London has never ending historical and entertainment venues for you to explore. Tea at the Savoy might be a possibility. If you are a theatre buff, this would be another night for a theatre performance on your own.

Jan 5-Wednesday

London

Our mind-filling adventure continues for one more day. A boat ride on the Thames to the London Eye and on to Greenwich would be very enjoyable. Tonight we enjoy another pleasurable evening in the theater with the included final night THEATRE TICKET.

Jan 6-Thursday

London-USA

Bid a fond "cheerio" to London, as your flight returns to the USA today.
